60 MINUTES

- 01/03/99      "The Magdalen Laundries"- for perceived sins of the flesh, a young Irish woman could be sent by the Catholic Church or her family to toil in a laundry where she might remain a virtual slave for years. The laundries existed in a number of locations in Ireland with the last closing just two year ago. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
- "Breaking Windows"- Sun Microsystems CEO Scott McNealy is probably Bill Gates biggest rival. Not only did he help convince the government to file its antitrust suit against Gates' Microsoft Corporation, McNealy also takes every public opportunity he can to bash the company's windows software that 95 percent of the world's personal computers rely on. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- "Where Have All the Addicts Gone?"- a policy of distributing heroin to addicts for a nominal fee has cleared Zurich's 'Needle Park' of the unsavory characters who gave the place its name and reduced the crimes associated with desperate drug users. Critics question whether the distribution program is really helping them get off the drug. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Don't Disappoint Andy" - famous people making commercials
- 01/10/99      "Call Me Mister!"- Preston King has been living abroad for 37 years, unable to return to his hometown of Albany, Ga., for fear he will be arrested for dodging the draft. King had registered with his draft board but refused to report for duty because as a black man, he was not addressed as 'mister.' The Justice Department is currently re-examining the case (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
- "The State of the Union: District Council 37"- for 28 years, Mark Rosenthal cleaned up trash in New York City's streets and parks until he was voted president of his local union. Now he's leading the effort to clean up one of the most powerful unions in the country -- New York's District Council 37 -- which is under investigation for corruption. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jonathan Wells)
- "Faking It"- Michael Born, a German freelance reporter/camerman was asked to come up with more and more sensational pictures. In desperation, he began using friends and family as actors and over a period of five years sold nearly 30 faked documentary reports to German television companies before being imprisoned for fraud. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
- Correction: incorrect photo identification of a person in "The Bicycle Club" OAD: 03/24/96
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Good News" - positive things during 1998

- 01/17/99     "The War At Home"- in America's military the domestic violence rate is many times greater than that found among civilians. Victims are given little in the way of protection and only five percent of the batterers are ever court martialled. Currently a class-action suit charging the U.S. military with negligence is being drafted on behalf of hundreds of these women. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"Amy's Story"- five years ago Amy Biehl, a Fullbright Scholarship winner from California, was murdered by a mob of black South African militants whose cause she had espoused. Instead of grieving, her parents dealt with her death by taking up her crusade in South Africa and have established the non-profit Amy Biehl Foundation to help poor black youngsters there. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"Juvenile Injustice?"- 11-year-old Lachesha Murray was charged with killing a two-year-old girl who had been dropped off at her grandparents' day care center. The girl who was held for days without a parent or lawyer until authorities got a confession that they used to convict her of criminally negligent homicide. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich, Frank Koughan)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Answers His Mail" - Andy responds on the air
- 01/24/99     "Olympic Gold"- a report on recent bribery charges involving the selection of host cities for the Olympic Games. Includes an interview with British investigative journalist Andrew Jennings who claims that even if the IOC expels some of its members, the organization remains so tainted that only new leadership and entirely new membership can clean it up. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon, Carolyn McEwen)
"Mishap Valley"- about a year ago during a training mission in Italy Captain Richard Ashby's Marine Corps jet clipped an aerial cable and sent a gondola filled with skiers plunging to their deaths. The Marines charge that the accident was the result of the pilot's failure to observe regulations. Ashby claims that the Marine Corps shares the blame because they didn't supply him with an adequate map of the area. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Harry Moses)
"Sean Penn"- an interview with actor Sean Penn. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Labels" - ingredients in food
- 01/31/99     "The Next First Lady?"- an interview with Elizabeth Dole, wife of Republican Presidential candidate Sen. Robert J. Dole of Kansas (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 03/03/96)
"Here Come the Girls"- a profile of Girls Choir of Harlem, the latest offering of The Choir Academy of Harlem, the New York City public school that produced the Boys Choir of Harlem and of Lorna Myers, the former operatic diva who leads them. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 01/18/98)
"Toni Morrison"- an interview with Pulitzer-Prize winning author Toni Morrison. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 03/08/98)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Colds" - cold remedies

48 HOURS

- 01/07/99     "The Killer Next Door"- in 1979, Donald Miller, a graduate of Michigan State University who majored in criminal justice, was sentenced to 30 to 50 years for rape and attempted murder, but was suspected in the unsolved murders of four other local young women. In a highly unusual plea bargain, Miller agreed to work with police in trying to recover his memories of other murders. The deal -- if he was successful in remembering, Miller would plead guilty to manslaughter charges for the other murders and no additional time would be added to his sentence. After serving 20 years, Miller was up for parole and only the discovery that he had in his possession, while in prison, a strangulation device in the form of a shoelace, has kept from going free. Currently a bill which could keep serial predators locked up is before the Michigan legislature. (C: Erin Moriarty, Bill Lagattuta, Sr. P: Gavin Boyle - P: Loen Kelley, Laura Levin, Tanya Simon, Lisa Freed)
- 01/14/99     "Binge"- Focuses on the alarming number of underage Americans who are finding ways to drink alcohol and the increase of alcohol-related deaths. Includes reports on: binge drinking on college campuses; teenagers who cross the border into Mexico where they can drink legally at 18; Minneapolis' Sobriety High School, a special school with a program geared to helping teenage alcoholics stay sober; the impact of alcohol advertising on teenagers and the effort to get the message across that underage drinking is dangerous; drunk driving as the cause of fatal auto accidents. (C: Erin Moriarty, Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer, Bill Lagattuta, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Diane M. Ronnau, Sophia M. Kim, Deirdre Cohen, Clare Friedland, Alec Sirken)
- 01/21/99     "A Second Chance"- examines some promising new cancer treatments, still in the experimental stages, including reports on: ES peptide, a vaccine used in the treatment of malignant melanomas; breast cancer treated with Herceptin, the first drug to specifically target a cancer-causing gene; and molecular diagnostics, a new screening process used to determine the most effective therapy for leukemia patients. (C: Watt Andrew, Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Anthony Batson, Josh Gelman, Mary Sue Holland, Linda Martin)
- 01/28/99     "Expert Witness"- focuses on the use of expert witnesses in criminal trials and the problems that arise when their testimony is inaccurate or completely false, including reports on: Jim Richardson, an innocent West Virginia man, who was given a life sentence for first degree murder based on the fraudulent testimony of Fred Zain, a state police expert; Terri Henson, a North Carolina woman, charged with arson and the murder of her 15-month-old son, who was cleared of all charges when Dr. Gerald Hurst and Ken Gibson, fire and explosives experts, found the real cause of the fire that killed her child; and a made-for-TV trial of a fictional murder case in which jurors had to decide which expert witness to believe. (C: Susan Spencer, Harold Dow, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Gail Zimmermann, Katherine Davis, Peter Henderson)

01/31/99     "To Stop A Stalker"- examines the crime of stalking -- a problem that affects as many as ten million Americans at some time in their lives. Includes reports on: Edward Lightfoot, who stalked teen-age girls over the phone for 10 years and now faces a possible life prison sentence; Michael Newell, a private investigator, who helps domestic violence victims; John Lane and Michael Eubanks whose company, Omega, specializes in keeping stalkers away from Hollywood celebrities; Joseph Cheffo, who was accused of being a stalker on the basis of one letter he sent to actress Kelly Preston; Dr. Doreen Orion, a psychiatrist who wrote a book about her own experience with a stalker; and Dover, N.H., a small town which has adopted a zero tolerance policy against stalking and domestic abuse (C: Dan Rather, Susan Spencer, Erin Moriarty, Harold Dow, Paula Zahn - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Tanya Simon, Marc B. Goldbaum, Jay Pedinoff) (OAD: 04/02/98)

60 MINUTES II

01/13/99     "Krasnoyarsk-26"- a report on a secret city in a remote part of Siberia where Russian workers living in complete isolation from the rest of the world produce plutonium to go into nuclear weapons. There is cause for concern because with Russia's current economic crisis these weapons of destruction might fall into the wrong hands. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

"Leading the Charge"- an interview with David Schippers, who in his role as chief investigative counsel convinced Republicans in the House to impeach President Clinton. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Mosely)

"Kieu My Thi"- followup to "Honor Thy Children," (OAD: 60 MINUTES 09/19/82) a report on the plight of children fathered by American servicemen during the Vietnam War who were left behind when the U.S. pulled out in 1975. The followup is an interview with one of these children, Kieu My Thi, now 23 and living with her family in Georgia. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh)

"Uncommon Sense"- people who wonder if there will be enough material for 60 MINUTES twice a week (C: Jimmy Tingle)

01/20/99     "Delinquents"- game rangers in South Africa's wildlife parks have discovered that the white rhino, a breed they had protected for years, were being attacked and killed by orphaned young male elephants. To combat the problem park rangers brought in older bull elephants to act as role models and keep the younger males under control. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce)

"Going To the Dentist"- a report on the risks involved when children are put under general anesthesia for routine dental procedures. Deaths have resulted when the surgeon has had inadequate training and no access to emergency life-saving equipment. Includes interviews with Dr. Myron Yaster, a pediatric anesthesiologist and Dr. Peter Hartman of the California Dental Board. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Chris Riback)

"Joyce Brown Is In Jail"- followup to "Joyce Ann Brown Is In Jail," (OAD: 10/22/89) a report on a Dallas woman serving a life sentence for robbery and murder who claimed that she was wrongly convicted. The followup is an interview with Ms. Brown who was released from prison and all charges have been dropped. (C: Morley Safer - P: Debbie Deluca Sheh)

"Uncommon Sense"- the parking ticket (C: Jimmy Tingle)

01/27/99      "Saddam's Bomb Maker"- the Clinton Administration claims that an Iraqi nuclear threat is remote. Experts, including Khidhir Hamza, the former director of nuclear weaponization in Iraq and David Albright, a leading expert on Saddam Hussein's nuclear weapons program, disagree claiming that Iraq, now free of UN inspectors, is ready to build a nuclear bomb. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
"Killing To Die"- Daniel Colwell, a mentally ill former high school athlete, murdered a Georgia couple. During his trial Colwell threatened to harm the jurors unless they opted for the death penalty because he wanted to commit suicide and had been unsuccessful in his attempts. An appeal hearing on the case is scheduled for next month (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber)
"Caitlin's Story"- a followup to "Caitlin's Story" (OAD: 11/08/92), a report on controversy which arose when doctors inserted a cochlear implant in the ear of Caitlin Parton, a six-year-old profoundly deaf child. The followup is an interview with Caitlin who is now 13. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh)
"Uncommon Sense"- Pope John II's message (C: Jimmy Tingle)
